ADULT CLASSES

BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For your convenience please note that by booking a class you agree to the following:

- Invoices for the term's fees are normally emailed before the start of term and are paid in advance. Once the class is booked and the invoice for the term issued and emailed, the term fee will be due regardless of attendance.
- Payment is via bank transfer as unfortunately DFA cannot accept cash, card or cheque payments at this time (bank details will be on your invoice).
- Drop in classes are not available at this time.
- Concession prices are not available for term bookings.
- Unfortunately we are not able to offer trial classes at this time, so if you would like to register for a class you will need to book for the full term.
- Regretfully, refunds or credits will not be available for classes missed during the term or should you decide to stop classes before the term is finished.
- One off attendance in classes that you are not registered for is not possible.
- Changing facilities are available in the building.
- Please note that DFA is a public building and changing/common rooms are not always monitored. There is a large number of people coming in and out of the building on a daily basis, so we strongly advise that you do not leave valuables unattended in the changing/common rooms of the building. DFA will accept no responsibility for items that are lost or left behind.
- Enrolment rolls over automatically from one term to the next, so if you would like to cancel classes you will need to inform the DFA office via email, at least 4 weeks before the start of a new term. Your space will be reserved for your chosen classes - and you will be billed accordingly - until you inform us that you wish to cancel. If appropriate notice is not received then 4 weeks' worth of fees will be due in lieu of notice.
